LOZ'S EDITORIAL

"I'M WRITING AN EDITORIAL WHICH I HOPE WO'NT BORE YOU ALL"

O.K so it's not not brilliant but even T.S.Eliot had to start somewhere . Anyway i'm not here to talk about poetry and i'd much rather tell you all about winged horses and my somewhat unnatural acquaintance with these majestic creatures of myth and legend . My first such encounter occurred after i had just arrived at Penzance station , having been borne aloft on the graceful wings of the noble class 40 English Riviera Express (and before some spotty, nerdy trainspotter amongst your number blurts out with conclusive proof that no such train exists i would like to kindly ask you to fuck off , since the events which i am relating do not belong to the everyday , temporal realm of being which we occupy but a far off , fantasy Valhalla where the grass is always green , the sky is always blue and hall caterers refrain from putting mint sauce in the mushy peas . Oh and by the way , if any of you are reading this and thinking "Oh my god , this Loz sounds like a real Tolkein reading/ Dungeons and Dragons playing/Computer science and Physics studying wanker " then i'd like to reassure you all that i by no means indulge in any of these somewhat sordid activities , my relationship with winged horses being a purely Platonic one) . Now , where was i ? Suffice to say this particular Pegasus was disguised as an SPG official , the reason being that such a disguise would be good for undercover purposes. Rum old world , eh?. Anyway back to the real world.

To tell the truth i was seriously considering packing this lark in , saying goodbye to "Hogwash" , and riding off into the sunset with a song in my heart and a rose clenched between my teeth in search of fame , fortune and fun in the film making industry . The hills of Hollywood beckoned and i felt duty bound to answer the call . But then my thoughts turned to the dear freshers and to the question whether it was morally right for me to send them back to Mummy and Daddy for Christmas without ever having sampled the delights of that which those in the second and third years are fed up to the back teeth with . Here you have , therefore , issue 3 of the mighty "Hogwash" especially for you dear freshers .

And while we're on the subject of freshers - what a rum and wacky bunch they are , eh? More about them later but in the meantime a short complaint regarding the severe lack of great saucy , sex scandal this term . Last year i remember the bedsprings used to creak well into the early hours and Mansfield was known for having more shags than a coastal cliff path and more crabs than Skeggy beach . Even my dearest next door neighbour , Charlotte Boundy has given up her previous antics for a more chaste lifestyle (and i don't mean "chaste" out of the mens'room with her knickers round her ankles). The one time alcoholic , nymphomaniac "femme fatale" of Mansfield Hall now makes do with only the occasional mass male "coffee sessions" , when dashing young freshers are not baring their naked bodies to her in the Hall bar (eh , Pete?).Only one question needs to be asked - since Charlie saw this well known "Action Man" in the altogether can she tell us whether he has the plastic blue Y-fronts or the censor friendly asexual flap of skin ?

"I don't fancy yours much " award of the term must go to young David Nathanson , our friend from across the pond , and his rather embarrassing encounter with a rather large tattooed female at the Union who , he was unlucky to learn , had been married twice and had three kids (it's the old G.Is in Vietnam spreading the American seed to the many females of the land syndrome again , i think). This particular incident is illustrated over the page .Yes , we certainly do seem to have got some real characters among the freshers , particularly one girl im sure you all know with a voice like a gang of Hells'Angels riding down the Mersey Tunnel and as much subtle tact as Sid the Sexist at a feminist conference . I'm sure that everyone knows who i'm talking about so i won't mention her name .And

And of course there's the interesting story behind the somewhat , er , revealing photograph at the bottom of this page , taken after the Hallowe'en party . It some these poor , naive , fools neglected to lock the door behind them when they went for a quiet "chat" in a friends room .
Unfortunately a snap happy "Hogwash reporter" was close at hand at the time and couldn't resist the photographic opportunities available . If blackmail money is not forthcoming then you'll be seeing the bottom half of the photo in next terms "Hogwash". Remember you're never safe from "Hogwash"

Anyway , that's the only scandal i can think of at the moment (pathetic , isn't it ?) unless you count the obvious "what the fk is Dave Morris playing at" speculations , so i think i'd better round this editorial off with a final thought :If Freud said that your car is a projection of your penis - which car would Chris Gilbert drive ? Answers on a postcard to the Hogwash office please . Now i think i'd better get off this damn typewriter before it drives me mad . Oh no ! It's too late ! I'm.....AAAAGGGGHHHH!!!

MUSIC REVIEW-THE BLUE BEATS , Mansfield Hall , October

As the anxiety of the first day was drowned with another pint , the "freshers" started to find their feet , only to be blasted off them a few days later by the mega watt cacaphony of our own resident D.J , Mr L.S.D himself . The torture was , however , not too stretched because of our 12 o'clock curfew .

However , this was not the last we had seen of Laser Sonic Discos - no such luck . Our wonderfully original President (although he has absolutely no talent for spelling- Did you all go to the Bonfire Hop "Prossion"!) decided to have a vicars and tarts party which was well attended - for Mansfield , that is . Well knock me over with a fresher , but somehow Mr . Lewis , owner of the aforementioned business "L.S.D" a booming discotheque corporation , had managed to get the contract for this much sought after venue : favouritism , bribery , surely not ; don't you think that it was done out of patriotism for the hall for a purely "expenses only" budget . The night was a success , with a good deal of participation , especially in drag : Mr . Lewis was said to have a very passable pair of legs (for a woman) and Matt Green (the one who looks like Obelix with a bob (and whose name sounds like a kind of emulsion paint-Ed)) won the prize for the best fancy dress - as "Stavros". All in all , the evening was a success by Mansfield standards and the disco was'nt too bad either : special thanks to Mr. Lewis for his disco roadshow and to all his roadies and helpers . Unfortunately his slaves , i mean serfs/exploited proletariat are far too many in number to name but without whom this event , this extravaganza , could not have taken place.

The next memorable event of the term took place on November 2nd , a date i'm sure will remain imprinted on our minds for many years to come : It was of courseL.S.D disco and the Off Beats , or was it the Blue Beats . Although i missed the first set , i have had many comments : "They looked like Bill and Ben , and two other flowerpot men" , an apt comment from one J.Scott (X16) a comment that others have agreed with , M.Atkinson (E7) being one of the memorable few . Philip Baynes , one of the L.S.D roadshow employees said "It was crap!" . The second set which was after "Black Adder" was attended with greater enthusiasm , for a while anyway . I would like to point out that the glass was not thrown at Mr . Lewis , but was mistakenly misplaced in the direction of the stage . The audience proved to be enthusiastic towards the end and at one time a spectator said that there were at least 20 bodies swaying to the music.

A well attended evening(?) was rounded off by the L.S.D roadshow disco which played classics such as "Tainted Love" and "Time Warp" (Bleeuurrgh-Ed) to name a few . Thanks To Mr . Lewis for his patriotic labours in enabling the Mansfield Hall residents to bop the night away , on many occasions . To quote Mr . Lewis "all publicity is good publicity" so the drinks are on you.

I made love to myself

~ while I watched

A 22 year old man has revealed how he made love to himself while his wife slept nearby.

And SCOTT LEWIS has stunned neighbours in the quiet village of READING with his saucy revelations. "He seemed so quiet", one neighbour told us last night.

Village torn apart by torrid sex tornado

The house in ~~Reading~~ LEWIS'S here sordid sex sessions took place.

FROLICS

SCOTT's sexy frolics with himself began one night in 1986 after he had spent a quiet evening at home with his wife ALISON. ALISON had gone to bed early and I was alone on the settee", he told us. "I'd had a few drinks and I was feeling very relaxed. The next thing I knew I felt my hand on my shoulder. Seconds later I was rolling around naked on the floor with myself. It seemed like the most natural thing in the world".

SCOTT has to have regular solo sex sessions whenever his wife was out of the house. "One minute I'd be in the garden mowing the lawn, and the next minute I'd be in the shed, fondling my own buttocks", he revealed.

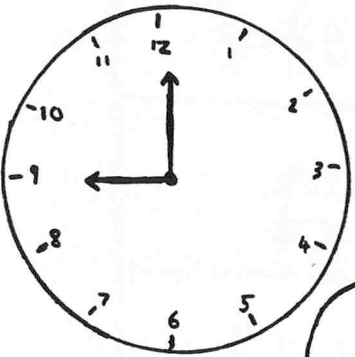

Passion volcano erupts showering village with red hot love lava

On one occasion SCOTT sat and watched while he made love to himself. "I'd just drunk a GLASS of SHANDY and was feeling uninhibited. I sat and watched myself in the mirror. It was a fantastic experience, although I had "headache afterwards". Soon SCOTT was having sex with himself up to three or four times a week. "Sometimes I would just sit in the cupboard under the stairs with my hand on my knee. At other times, I would roll around on the carpet in front of the fire for hours on end. On one occasion, I even knocked the coffee table over and spilt a glass of wine. I only just managed to clean it up before my wife got home".

SESSIONS

Locals at the TURKS Head PUB only 200 yards from the LEWIS'S semi-detached house, were shocked when they heard of SCOTT's steamy sex sessions. "He seemed so quiet", one customer told us.
